D132 Ex-Nanking War Prisoners

1929
25 3 29

D132

D132

Form No. 2
G. 20000-1-28

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE.

REPORT

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE
C. I. D. REGISTRY
No. I. O. D. 132
Central P.B. Shanghai
Date

Date March 25th 1929.

Subject (in full) Ex-Nanking War Prisoners.

Made by P.C.S. Maklaevsky Forwarded by T. P. Gwiens A.C. Vol

Sir,

With reference to the attached translation from the "Shanghai Zarya" of March 15, 1929 re the departure of ex-Nanking war prisoners, inquiries show that of the 66 men who arrived here from Nanking in January and February 1929, 17 left Shanghai for Harbin on February 23, 1929 but on arrival in Dairen, 8 of them joined the newly formed Chinese Army of Marshal Chang Chung Chang and the remainder proceeded to their destination in Harbin. On March 14, 1929 another party of 7 men left Shanghai for Harbin and Hailar on Chinese Eastern Railway, where they have relatives among the former Trans-Baikal Cossacks, who are now engaged in farm work there. Of the remainder 10 joined the Russian Unit, S.V.C., 23 men obtained employment locally and the remainder still reside in the premises attached to the Russian Church off North Szechuen Road, Chapei. It is expected that employment will be found for them in due course.

B. Maklaevsky
P. C. S.

M.R. 25/3/29.

A/D.C.I.

Usual authority
26/3

Copies forwarded 26/3

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] arrest has been affected at the request of the Harbin [illegible] authorities.

[illegible]

[illegible] left [illegible] after reviewing the cavalry troops.

[illegible]

[illegible] of "[illegible]" Cafe.

[illegible] cafe under the above style is [illegible] over the [illegible] Orient Cinema in Avenue Joffre and will be under Russian management.

The "[illegible]" of March [illegible] writes as follows:-

Russian.

Further departure of ex Nanking Prisoners.

Seven more men of the ex Nanking prisoners are leaving Shanghai to-day for the Chinese Eastern Railway Zone. They have been provided with tickets by the Orthodox Fraternity. There are only eleven men remaining now in charge of the Fraternity in the Mission premises.

Gen. Horvath thanked by the Grand Dutchess Anastasia Nikolaevna.

Gen. Horvath received a letter of thanks from the Grand Dutchess Anastasia Nikolaevna, wife of the deceased Grand Duke Nikolai Nikolaevich, addressed to all Russians in the Far East, in reply to sympathies expressed to her wherein she also hopes that Russia will soon be free through the united efforts of all Russian people.

Enquiries HR.